Welcome and	The August monthly meeting of the Consortium for a Healthier Miami-Dade Children Issues
Introductions	sub-committee (Healthy Baby Taskforce) was brought to order by Valerie Turner at 12:30 p.m.
	All members were welcomed and introduced themselves.
Approval of	There was a motion to approve the July 2020 Healthy Baby Taskforce meeting minutes by Minutes	Candice Schottenloher, the motion was seconded by KeTia Harris.
Previous Action	- The Healthy Baby Taskforce reviewed August as National Breastfeeding Month. This year
Items	the United States National Breastfeeding Committee has announced the 2020 National Breastfeeding Month theme to be Many Voices United. The weekly themes are included National	here:
Breastfeeding	 Week 1 (August 1-7): World Breastfeeding Week: Support Breastfeeding for a Month Campaign	Healthier Planet
	 Week 2 (August 9-15): Native Breastfeeding Week Week 3 (August 16-24): Spotlight on Infant and Young Child Feeding in Emergencies
	 Week 4 (August 25-31): Black Breastfeeding Week: Revive. Restore. Reclaim.

	- The Taskforce members this year commemorated National Breastfeeding Month with a video testimonial campaign shared through social media. It is important to highlight the testimonials shared Taskforce partners and their clients breastfeeding experiences to share their perspective with the community. The Taskforce created a total of twenty-three (23) social media posts for this month related to all weekly themes. The Taskforce organized a video testimonial campaign with a total of twelve (12) video testimonials created and shared from partners and clients.
	- The video testimonials were shared for Week 2 (August 9-15): Native Breastfeeding Week on all Consortium social media platforms. These social media posts and video testimonials were shared on the Consortium's Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and YouTube pages.
Eliminating Racial	- It was highlighted September is National Infant Mortality Awareness Month. During the Disparities in	September meeting a presentation will be shared with the Taskforce to further understand
Maternal and	and discuss some next steps for our work to address and eliminate racial disparities in Infant Mortality	maternal child health.
	- DOH-Miami-Dade shared they will conduct research using Florida Health Charts and Miami Matter on these rates affecting infant and maternal mortality. The Healthy Start Coalition of Miami-Dade shared they would be able to provide some data on the Top 10 Zip Codes related to the highest rates of infant mortality, pre-term births, and low-birth weight. - The Taskforce shared other areas to include in the presentation would be zip code level data on infant mortality rates and identify best practices used to date. From this understanding and organic conversation, the Taskforce in the future concluded they will have a more targeted approach with their work to decrease infant mortality rates among these marginalized groups.
New Business	- The Taskforce discussed a way to continue the conversation of collective impact was to create a social media toolkit for partners to download and share with the community.
HBT Digital	- The Taskforce Liaison shared two sample toolkits with the Taskforce as an opportunity to Media Campaign	share our work with other organizations, partners, and the community. The two practices shared were from the Black Mamas Matter Alliance and the Florida Department of Health in Miami-Dade County toolkits.
	- It was noted to include a general about us section with our mission and vision, key terms and facts, hash tags, and sample social media posts and articles. It was also shared we can include the electronic palm card and the breastfeeding brochure.
	the electronic paint card and the breastreeding brochare.

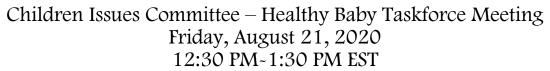

- The Taskforce created a team of partners who will work on this toolkit. The partners include DOH-Miami-Dade WIC, Jessie Trice Community Health Systems, and DOH-Miami-Dade. - Lastly, the Taskforce partners had a conversation they will share this idea with their organizations to learn how they can use this tool and if their organization would be able to share the messaging we provide through this toolkit.
